"Half truths about Christ" will be Dr. H. J. Steward's Sunday morning subject at the Presbyterian church. Evening subject, "Our afflicted President." All welcome.

It is almost impossible in the clay hills of Hocking County to get good farming results without the use of fertilizers. The best can be obtained at reasonable prices at the store of W. P. Miller, Union Furnace.

The funeral services of Frank Bradfield Mutchmore, was held at the residence of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Mutchmore, Wednesday morning at eight o'clock. Dr. Steward conducted the service. The little child had endeared himself to all, and the afflicted parents have the sympathy of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Mutchmore left with the child for Middleport.

AN INTERESTING FIND

At the Rock House in Hocking County.

While exploring the cavernous depths of the Rock House a few days ago, a party of tourists found a half-pint bottle in an almost inaccessible cranny, within which was a little slip of paper. Written on the latter were these prophetic words:

"Should this ever be found leave, with explanation, at the court house in Logan, which is at present the county seat."

June 25, 1880.
"This day C. D. Elder, of Logan and Jas. Danley, Esq., of New York; Geo. Randel, Esq., and T. B. Band, both of Laurelville, with ladies, visited this cave. "Whoever shall find this will please note the change made since. Now James Buchanan is President, and S. P. Chase is Governor of Ohio."

"Next year is Presidential year, and we feel there will be a civil war in the United States."

"Where will we be in 1900."

In Court.

The Common Pleas Court convened Monday with Judge O. W. H. Wright on the bench.

The Grand Jury was ably put to work by the court, and as we go to press are still in session, therefore we can give no report on criminal work.

Coe-Sheppard.

[Nelsonville Buckeye.] A quiet home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sheppard, Sunday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Clarence Coe to Miss Florence Sheppard, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sheppard. Only the immediate family being present. Those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson and son Thomas Jr., and daughter Clara, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheppard of Brenholts, and Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Sheppard of Columbus. Mr. and Mrs. Coe are at home to their many friends at the residence of Mrs. Mary Coe on Fayette street.

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a gravedigger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued his use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at Case's drug store.

WORK'S DRESS CUTTING SCHOOL.

W. A. WORK, Proprietor, St. Louis, Mo.

To the Ladies of This Town and Vicinity.

I WISH to announce, that we have located, and will conduct for the next month or six weeks, one of the most thorough and complete dressmaking schools ever brought to this vicinity. We have expert teachers of experience. They are a success in this line of work. They know how to go about it to make you an artist in decorating the feminine figure, this trade will be of endless value to you as long as you live. There is no other concern of this kind, so well prepared to teach this trade as we are. No system in this country is so complete and so elaborate as the Garment Cutter.

You can not afford to miss this opportunity, you are not likely to have this chance again right at your own home.

We Refer You to the Following Ladies of Logan and Vicinity

Who have taken this system and are now completing their course of instructions, in drafting, cutting and fitting all garments worn by Ladies, Gents and Children, in a scientific and accurate manner. We guarantee satisfaction. You are at liberty to call on any of these ladies, and they will inform you whether or not our system and teachings are what we represent them to be. They are all in the Logan school.

Miss Minnie Arnold	Miss Anna Lechrone	Miss Celesta Heft
Miss Marie Palmer	Miss Bertha Stevens	Miss Rebecca Sheets
Miss Alice Palmer	Miss Irma Stinchfield	Kimberling & Co.
Miss Ida Hartley	Miss Mable Wright	Miss Anna Fox
Miss Ida Jurgensmier	Miss Mary Till	Miss Anna Dillan
Miss Olive Lane	Miss Belle Shaw	Miss Clara Shannon
Miss Laura Ferguson	Mrs. C. Shull	Mrs. M. J. Ferguson
Mrs. Mary Vanatta	Miss Maud Bartlett	Miss Jennie Bartlett
Miss Christine Frasch	Miss Bessie Adcock

Use no other system, you will not be able to do this class of work if you do, there is no other system in the country doing this most important work. See the Garment Cutter, visit our schools, or call on its agents. Address all communications to

JOHN L. RICHARDSON State Agent and Manager of Schools.
